The Honorable Stuart Symington
United States Senate
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Stu:

Several newspapermen who were present at the recent meeting you had with them, at the Press Club I believe, mentioned to me that you had gone out of your way to express confidence in our organization and its chief. I am deeply appreciative of this, coming as it does at a time when others, who do not have the grasp of these problems, are prone to criticize.

Faithfully yours,

*I would add that this does not apply to the Congress whose members have shown the highest degree of patriotism.
